Important Modifications:

- Deaf or hard of hearing students performing using ASL for a solo musical performance event may perform either with another performer voicing the lyrics or a cast recording.
- Students should be given the opportunity to rehearse with the performer OR cast recording. In both cases the student must also be given either an interpreter facing them to interpret the lyrics as sung , OR a video of a performance with close captioning to interpret the lyrics so that the student may time their ASL performance.
- For optimum benefit of the student, consider arranging for an interpreter trained in expressive interpretation for performance and at least one adjudicator trained in expressive interpretation and/or skilled in ASL.

Adjudicator Guidance: To view samples of performances to help familiarize yourself with ASL singing technique prior to adjudicating please refer to these examples:
