Okay. "Every eligible young maiden in the kingdom is hereby commanded to attend for introduction to the prince."

(The FAIRY GODMOTHER gives CINDERELLA a spin; CINDERELLA spins upstage and around the carriage, emerging in a dazzling gown and beautiful evening slippers made of glass. The music holds a tremolo while she considers herself, and the glass slippers, barely able to believe her eyes.)

The musical score is written for a large ensemble. It begins with a 4/4 time signature and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The score is divided into three systems. The first system (measures 1-3) features a piano introduction with a tremolo effect. The second system (measures 4-6) continues the piano introduction. The third system (measures 7-8) features a tutti section with a forte (fp) dynamic. The score includes various instrumental parts: Fls +8vb, Hp glisses (K1), Ob/Clars/Brs/Pno (K2), Vlns, Pno (K2), +Bsn/Timp/Vc/Bs sust., Tbn/Timp/Pno (K2), WWs/Hns, Vc, +Hns off-beats, Hn 1/Trps/Tbn, Fl 1 (8va)/Clar 1/Bsn (8vb), and Bs. The score also includes a section for the Fairy Godmother's vocal line, marked with a wavy line and the word 'Tutti'.

(the Footman opens the door of the carriage and helps Cinderella and the Fairy Godmother out. Cinderella is overwhelmed at the sight of the palace, and increasingly nervous.)

GODMOTHER: Well, have a lovely night.

CINDERELLA: But aren't you coming in?

GODMOTHER: Honey, I've done so many of these do's, I couldn't do another do.

CINDERELLA: But I'm afraid.

GODMOTHER: Of what?

CINDERELLA: That I won't fit in. You know – with the other girls.

GODMOTHER: I was never big on fitting in. I always preferred to stand out.

CINDERELLA: But nothing in my life has prepared me for a night like this.

(underscoring)

GODMOTHER: And yet everything in your life has led you to this moment. Look around, Cinderella – your wish has been granted. Now get in there and do something with it.

CINDERELLA: Thank you – for everything.

GODMOTHER: Oh, Cinderella – just one thing more. Extremely important. You must leave the palace before the clock strikes twelve.

CINDERELLA: Before midnight? But all the girls get to stay out late tonight.

GODMOTHER: Not you.

CINDERELLA: But...

GODMOTHER: No more buts. Just make certain you leave before midnight.

CINDERELLA: Okay – I will.

The musical score is written for a vocal ensemble and a string orchestra. The vocal parts are in treble clef, and the string parts are in both treble and bass clefs. The key signature has one sharp (F#). The score is divided into two systems. The first system covers measures 25 to 28. Measure 25 has a whole rest for the vocalists. Measure 26 has a whole note for the vocalists. Measure 27 has a whole note for the vocalists. Measure 28 has a half note for the vocalists. The string parts are playing a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes. The second system covers measures 29 to 31. Measure 29 has a whole note for the vocalists. Measure 30 has a whole note for the vocalists. Measure 31 has a whole note for the vocalists. The string parts continue with the same rhythmic pattern. The vocalists are singing in a lamenting tone, with the lyrics 'trou - ble I could break her lit - tle arm! oh,' and 'why would a fel - low want a girl like her, a girl who's mere-ly'.

CHRISTOPHER: So even when it's just the three of us, we eat every meal at a table that seats forty-two people. It's insane.

CINDERELLA: I must say, you certainly lead an interesting life.

CHRISTOPHER: It's become a lot more interesting tonight. (KEY CHANGE)

CHRISTOPHER: (continued) Isn't it strange how things happen? A girl I've never seen before comes down a flight of stairs and suddenly nothing will ever be the same.

(The STEPMOTHER pulls the flowers from a vase, rips the buds off and puts the barren stems back in the vase.)

STPMOTHER: Cinderella!

(She comes running on; music out.)

The musical score consists of two systems of piano accompaniment. The first system contains measures 34 through 38, and the second system contains measures 39 through 43. Each measure is numbered above the treble clef staff. The music is written in a key with one flat (B-flat) and a 3/4 time signature. The right hand (treble clef) features a melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together, and includes some grace notes. The left hand (bass clef) provides a steady accompaniment with eighth notes. In measure 43, there is a double bar line, and the word "Tutti" is written below the staff. Above measure 43, there is a box containing an asterisk (*).
